COMMON ORDER:

When the matters came up for hearing on 16.03.2006 none appeared for the petitioner, hence, they were directed to be listed under the caption for dismissal on 17.03.2006. On 17.03.2006, on a representation that Sri G. Balaram, learned counsel for the petitioner was unwell, the matters were adjourned to 21.03.2006 and on 21.03.2006 the matters were further adjourned to 23.03.2006.

Again when the matters came up for hearing on 12.09.2006, none appeared for the petitioner, hence, the matters were directed to be listed under the caption for dismissal. Even today a representation has been made stating that Sri. G. Balaram, learned counsel for the petitioner is unwell and sought adjournment of the matters.

Keeping in view the fact that the matters underwent several adjournments even when they were listed under the caption for dismissal and also the fact that, Mr. M. Srinivas, learned counsel representing the learned counsel for the petitioner is also not prepared to argue the matter, the writ petitions are accordingly dismissed for default. No costs.
